

REFLECTIONS FROM JOSH JONES

Welcome to the 2nd week of our Sermon Series for January in which we savour and explore the Psalms. It's good for us to be reminded that these are the prayers/hymns that Jesus would have grown up with and very much part of his own spiritual formation. Their real richness and beauty is that they express the full range of our human experience and our 'honest humanity'. Our praise and our pain. The hallelujahs and the broken hallelujahs of our lives. We can only realise the fullness of a mature, authentic spirituality if we are able to express the fullness of our human condition. Encouraging this spirit of honest authentic humanity is the heartbeat of who we are and what we value as a St George's community in Christ. A few months back we shared these words with our staff and Vestry team as a reminder of what it looks like to reflect the spirit of the Psalms here at St George's.

If this is not a place where tears are understood, where do I go to cry?

*If this is not a place where my spirits can take wing,
where do I go to fly?*

*If this is not a place where my questions can be asked,
where do I go to seek?*

*If this is not a place where my feelings can be heard,
where do I go to speak?*

*If this is not a place you'll accept me as I am,
where do I go to be me?*

OUR FOUR CORE VALUES

'He Tangata, He Tangata, He Tangata. It is the people, the people, the people.'

A Place of Grace – A community where everyone can come and be safe, loved and accepted. Everyone is valued and empowered to be the person God intended us to be.

Diversity is a Gift – A life-affirming, life-enhancing community, celebrating our God given differences and growing deeper in our relationship and formation in Jesus Christ.

Creativity and Justice – Encouraging and releasing our creative gifts and advocating the intrinsic value and dignity of all people, the land and all living creatures through the ethos of Kaitiakitanga (Guardianship).

Daring Greatly – Having the courage, trust and vision, to follow the Spirit's leading. To see beyond what we already see, to become more than we already are. To be an outward-focused church, creating pathways into the community and people we are privileged to serve.
