REFLECTIONS FROM REV. JOSH JONES

Last week we had a glorious celebration of Pentecost Sunday, a key day in the Church calendar celebrated world-wide by millions of Christians. Today we celebrate the occasion which always follows one week after Pentecost, which is Trinity Sunday. The longer I've travelled in my own faith journey the more I've come to appreciate the significance and the implications of making these key days such a focus. Any Church community that does not immerse its whole ministry and mission life in the life-giving power of the Holy Spirit will find itself ministering in ever decreasing circles. Celebrating Pentecost reminds us of the need to centre all that we have, are and ever hope to be in the life of the Spirit's empowering presence.

Trinity Sunday is another opportunity for us to be reminded of the core doctrine of our Christian faith. That we believe in a Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. For me this has always grounded our faith in a deeply profound truth of the universe. That the shape and pattern of all reality is relationship. The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are in a divine union of relationship, and the really exciting part is that we are invited into this relationship. It's at the heart of our verse for the day John 16:15 ... All that belongs to the Father is mine (Jesus Christ) ; this is why I said, 'The Spirit will tell you whatever the Spirit receives from Me.' The Father, Son and the Spirit along with you and I participating in the divine chord of life. Today I get the privilege of exploring this deeply profound truth that has significance for every aspect of our lives.

Peace and grace,

Rev. Josh Jones and the Leadership Team
