REFLECTIONS FROM REV. JEREMY WOODS

The fourth Sunday in July is Social Services Sunday, and so this morning we are delighted to have Alan Thorp with us sharing about his work. Alan is the Group CEO of Habitat for Humanity New Zealand Limited and is passionate about how housing is the foundation of functional communities. Alan is married to Libby, and they have four children aged 9-14.

We are having lunch together in the hall afterwards, put on for us by one of our life groups, so a huge thanks to those providing soup and bread. Please stick around to share in this time together.

Josh and Kim arrived safely in the U.K. last weekend and Josh's mum was able to welcome them. Please keep them and the family in your prayers, that they would be richly blessed in this time together. In Josh's absence, please contact Jeremy, Stan or Bryan Parry if needed.

Youth and kids' programmes are back on this week as we begin term 3. Please keep our tamariki, youth and families and their leaders in your prayers as we begin a new term and aim to settle into routines after such an unsettled time.

Arohanui,

Jeremy and the Leadership Team.
