NEXT SUNDAY, 7 June - 10.00am

SPEAKER - Josh & Jeremy
“Catching the Wind”

VISITORS ... It’s great to have you worshipping with us today. We hope you feel at home, and please join us in hall after service for morning tea.

Reflection from Josh and Jeremy

Good morning and a very warm welcome to St George's this morning, and a happy King's birthday weekend. This weekend both Josh and Jeremy are away, getting their weekend off that initially was planned for after Easter but was disrupted by the weather. Josh and Kim are enjoying time in Taupō with family, and Jeremy and Buzzy and the girls are celebrating Buzzy's 40th.

Today Stan will be exploring the core mystery of our faith—the Holy Trinity. We believe that at the center of all reality is a Triune Relationship of Love: Father, Son and Spirit. God is constantly wooing us to participate in this relationship.

Next weekend we will be having a 'vision Sunday' where we will be unpacking our missional priorities for 2026 and beyond with the theme of Catching the Wind. It captures where we sense the winds of the Spirit are blowing, and how we might best 'catch' the wind rather than be 'chasing the wind.' We recognize that this blowing of the Spirit is resonating with many of us in the community, and thankful for the confirmation that we are following where God is leading in this season.

Baptism

Also next service, we are delighted to announce that Calum Walters has decided to get baptised, and it has all fallen into place to land on the same Sunday. Calum explored the possibility of baptism last year, and now feels like the time is right. While it is last minute notice, we believe that, like the story of Philip and the Ethiopian Eunuch in Acts 8, there is not better time than now! So if you have been feeling this call to follow in the way of Jesus, and would like to get baptised next weekend, please contact Josh or Jeremy.
